Brian Lynch is the founder and president of California -based Advantage Systems, a provider of accounting and contract management tools for the mortgage banking and real estate development industries. With more than 30 years of experience in the accounting industry, Lynch founded Advantage Systems in 1986 and changed the company's focus to the mortgage industry in 1991 with the creation of Accounting for Mortgage Bankers (AMB), an accounting system tailored to the loan-level metrics needs of mortgage bankers. He sat down with HousingWire to let you know how originators are going to survive the warehouse-lending drought.
